Our Mascot – The History of the Rock-A-Chaw

"In 1916 the newly organized St. Stanislaus varsity football team became known as the Rock-A-Chaws. Credit for coining the title belongs to Br. Macarius Pierce, SSC principal, who organized a Rooters Club in 1916 to cheer for the team. Within a few years, the name Rock-A-Chaws was used for all SSC athletes, and the rock-a-chaw became the school mascot.

Rock-a-chaw comes from an old Choctaw word meaning devil grass, and it refers to the pesky little sand burrs that abounded on campus before the lawns were cultivated. For years College students conscientiously removed the cockleburs from their playing fields where the prolific prickly weeds sprung up naturally in the sandy soil that was ideal for them. Sometimes SSC students dragged woolen blankets across the fields before a game to pick up the rock-a-chaws that stuck with their small sharp spikes."

Brother Xavier Werneth, SC

1854-2004

"Ode to the Rock-A-Chaws"

written by Br. Macarius Pierce in 1916.

There's a favored spot with a golden shore
Where the waves splash music forevermore.
The creeping grass enamels with green
The banks of that shore with its brightest sheen.
The breezes that blow from the Southern clime
Waft through the oaks with a softened rime.
The tempting cool green invites you to pause
But alas, you will feel the sharp Rock-a-chaws.

What are they? 'Tis my task to tell—
They've got the meanness of the devils from hell.
They're the most consistent, persistent pest,
That puts a man's patience to the test.
They lie in wait with a fiendish glee
For the innocent hand or foot or knee.
And they stick with an affection denying all laws,
The rancorous, cantankerous Rock-a-chaws.

In this favored spot stands a College grand
Famed for its athletes throughout the land.
Its football squad is a husky bunch
With brawn and brains--I have a hunch.
And casting around for a name to present
The qualities which to their enemies meant.
Confusion, disaster, and horrid death's jaws,
They hit on a name of "The Rock-A-Chaws."

St. Stanislaus Fight Song

Go get 'em all you Rock-A-Chaws!

Fight for your school, oh Stanislaus!

Plenty of spirit and lots of pep,

Now that's the way we won our rep.

Fight for your school boys, never quit!

Let's block 'em low and really hit.

Oh loyal sons of Stanislaus,

Go get 'em all you ROCK-A-CHAWS!

The Mission of St. Stanislaus College

The mission of St. Stanislaus College, a Catholic resident and day school for young men, is to teach Gospel values and to nurture the total development of each student according to the charism of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart. The school fosters character formation and integrates faith development within a curriculum that is primarily college preparatory. As an integral part of its mission, St. Stanislaus maintains a resident program that offers students opportunities for educational success and personal growth within a disciplined and structured environment.

and 2007 Seniors

May you ride an easy walking horse
Sleep 'neath a rain-tight roof and eat high on the hog
Every day of the year .

May yours sons be brave
Your daughters marriageable
Your wife loving

May you always have tomato gravy on your ham
Hush puppies with your catfish and the good sense not
To argue with your wife.

May you be in Heaven
Half hour before
The devil knows you're dead
